

DECATUR WOMAN IS DEAD.

Decatur, Ind., Oct. 29.—Elizabeth Kirschner, wife of Edward A. Kirschner, of Kirkland township, died Tuesday night at her home after a several years' illness of cancerous affection. Her condition had been most critical in the past three months. She was born in Allen county March 3, 1847, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bender. Surviving are the following children: Katie, Chas. G. Kirschner, Augusta Hagist, Fred Kirschner, Emma Blake, Caroline Bieberich, William Kirschner. Brothers and sister are Mrs. Charles Ewell and Fred Bender. The funeral will be held at the Preble Lutheran church by Rev. Koch if the son from Alabama can come by that time. If not, it will be Saturday.
